

WHAT IS LUPUS? with Mack the Molecule

Lupus is a disease in which a person's immune system turns against itself, attacking healthy cells as well as the ones that make you sick. It can affect any part of the body, with symptoms including:

- Hair loss
- A rash in the shape of a butterfly on your face
- Being so tired you can't get out of bed
- Joints that hurt a lot